Dear Mrs. Wheaton,

Herewith we would like to inform you that PIERALISI designs and manufactures solutions for sludge thickening and dewatering, with a large range of continuously innovated decanters and separators. The machinery is produced exclusively by PIERALISI Maip S.p.A. in Italy, following rigorous technical specifications and particularities, and are distributed by its branches and authorized reps or resellers around the world. The branch responsible for the distribution of PIERALISI products in the North American market is PIERALISI North America.

There are no competitors that can offer the unique line of equipment produced by PIERALISI or that can commercialize PIERALISI machines.

PIERALISI original spare parts are designed to guarantee superior reliability and durability of the equipment and are built with materials that meet the most stringent design and safety standards to safeguard the quality of the products processed by the customers.

PIERALISI will not be held responsible for parts not supplied by the company and this can drop its responsibility and warranty on the product, unless otherwise agreed between the parties.

For further information please don't hesitate to contact the Sales and Service Team. To place your order please call us: 513 275-4720 (info.northamerica@pieralisi.com).

Sincerely,

Carol Pedracolli
Office Manager
